Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

1. Claim 9 and 19 are objected to because of the following informalities: "form the user".
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

2. Claims 1-22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being unpatentable by Scolini et al., Pub. No.: US 2003/0233321 A1 (PTO 892 form A).

3. As per claim 1, Scolini et al. teaches a method for generating account statements for batch printing, comprising:

grouping a plurality of accounts for which account statements are to be generated in a batch printing run (§ 1221; § 1230); receiving account data for each of the plurality of accounts, the account data for use in generating at least one account statement for each of the plurality of accounts (§ 0903; § 0912; § 0920);

presenting, to a user, a plurality of reporting formats that are available to be assigned to at least one of the plurality of account statements, each of the plurality of reporting formats defining a printed layout of the account data for the account statements (§ 0616; § 0842; § 1350);

receiving, from the user, a selection of a first account from the plurality of accounts, and a selection of a first reporting format from the plurality of reporting formats for the first account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642);

receiving, from the user, a selection of a second account from the plurality of accounts, and a selection of a second reporting format from the plurality of reporting formats for the second account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642); and generating a first account statement in the first reporting format for the first account and a second account statement in the second reporting format for the second account, said first and second account statements for printing in the batch printing run (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

4. As per claim 2, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini further teaches said grouping further comprising:

grouping the plurality of accounts based on a group designation selected by the user (§ 0219; § 1207).

5. As per claim 3, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini further teaches said first and second account statements comprising at least one of a billing statement, a credit card statement, and a summary of investment holdings (§ 0920-0921).

6. As per claim 4, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches said account data retrieved from a financial database (§ 0797-0798).

7. As per claim 5, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 4 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising:

receiving, from the user, a correction of the account data for the first account, wherein the correction is entered into the financial database (§ 0561; § 0856; § 1218).

8. As per claim 6, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising:

receiving, from the user, a selection of the second reporting format for the first account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230); and generating a third account statement in the second reporting format for the first account, said first, second and third account statements for printing in the batch printing run (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

9. As per claim 7, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising:

receiving, from the user, a selection of a third reporting format from the plurality of reporting formats for the second account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230); and generating a third account statement in the third reporting format for the second account, said first, second and third account statements for printing in the batch printing run (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

10. As per claim 8, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini further teaches the method comprising: designating at least one of the first and second account statements for quality review (§ 0006; 1358; page 59).

11. As per claim 9, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising comprising:

Art Unit: 3691

receiving, from the user, a parameter for generating the first and second account statements, the parameter including at least one of a time period for said account statements, a status of the accounts corresponding to said account statements, a corporate group responsible for the accounts, a number of copies of the account statements to be printed in the batch printing run (Figs. 16-18, 20-21), and a designation of whether the account statements are to undergo quality review (Figs. 21-22).

12. As per claim 10, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising:

printing the batch printing run after said generating and a completion of a quality review for all designated account statements in the batch printing run (§ 1259).

13. As per claim 11, claim 11 is equivalent of claim 1. Please refer to claim 1 rejection.

14. As per claim 12, claim 12 is equivalent of claim 2. Please refer to claim 2 rejection.

15. As per claim 13, claim 13 is equivalent of claim 3. Please refer to claim 3 rejection.

16. As per claim 14, claim 14 is equivalent of claim 4. Please refer to claim 4 rejection.

17. As per claim 15, claim 15 is equivalent of claim 5. Please refer to claim 5 rejection.

As per claim 16, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 11 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising: receiving, from the user, a selection of a second account from the plurality of accounts and a selection of the first reporting format for the second account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642); and generating a third account statement in the first reporting format for the second account, said first, second and third account statements for printing in the batch printing run (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

Art Unit: 3691

18. As per claim 17, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 1 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising: receiving, from the user, a selection of a second account from the plurality of accounts and a selection of a third reporting format from the plurality of reporting formats for the second account (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642); and generating a third account statement in the third reporting format for the second account, said first, second and third account statements for printing in the batch printing run (§ 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

19. As per claim 18, claim 18 is equivalent of claim 8. Please refer to claim 8 rejection.

20. As per claim 19, claim 19 is equivalent of claim 9. Please refer to claim 9 rejection.

21. As per claim 20, claim 20 is equivalent of claim 10. Please refer to claim 10 rejection.

22. As per claim 21, Scolini et al. teaches a method for generating a batch of account statements. Scolini et al. further teaches the method comprising: grouping a plurality of accounts for which account statements are to be generated in a batch printing run (§ 1221; § 1230); receiving account data for each of the plurality of accounts, the account data for use in generating at least one account statement for each of the plurality of accounts (§ 0903; § 0912; § 0920); presenting, to a user, a plurality of reporting formats that are available to be assigned to at least one of the plurality of account statements, each of the plurality of reporting formats defining a printed layout of the account data for the account statements, receiving, from the user, a selection of an account from the plurality of accounts and a selection of a reporting format from the plurality of reporting formats for the account (§ 0616; § 0842; § 1350); receiving, from the user, a designation for quality review for an account statement generated for the account (§ 0006; § 1358; page 59; Figs. 21-22); and generating the account statement for the account in the reporting format, wherein the batch printing run including the account statement can not be completed until the account statement is approved during the quality review (§ 0448; § 0273; § 0636; § 0642; § 1221; § 1230).

23. As per claim 22, Scolini et al. teaches the method of claim 21 described above. Scolini et al. further teaches wherein the account is automatically designated for quality review unless changed by the user (§ 0006; § 1358; page 59; Figs. 21-22).
